includes the village of Irvington. In the determination to keep the wed ding from becoming a popular spectacle and the centre of noisy curiosity such as some of the weddings of wealthy New Yorkers have been, Miss Sould has had a detective agency insure the privacy of Lyndhurst before and during the ceremony. Numerous roards prevented curtosity seekers and moving picture men from getting near the mansion at Irvington. The only activity visible about the place to-day was that of a small army of florists' men who were arranging banks of flowers within the glassed lower floor of the

org. They may drive to Clerk Dashr he may be asked to come to Lynd-urst to save Miss Gould the embarrassment of being stared at by curious rowds. By taking his soal with him

ing taken on the gueste it will be rushed handled million n, are at present at the home of Gould at Castlegould, on Long They will meter to Tarrytown pedding. It is expected that this force will be kept on the grounds until the neary gifts have been eafely deposited. The Tarrytown police will also be sugmented by a special detail.

O. K. FOR NEW QUEENS LINE.

the Public Service Commission to-day to the form of contract for the con-struction of Section No. 8 of the Woodside, Astoria and Corona Rapid Tran-est Railroad. This is one of the Queens lines of the proposed dual sys-sm which runs from the end of the Queensboro Bridge out Queens Boule-tand and Roosevelt avenue to Sycasion directed advertising for bids for this section to be opened Friday, Feb. 7.

THE CLOSING QUOTATIONS.

The following were the highest, lowest and in driess of stocks for to-day and the net changes of the angle with percentage changes process

1				Net
Lines, Copper	Thigh	TLOW.	Last	Ch Res.
Exmir. C. & F	83	64	63	110
Starr, Best Sugar.	37	117	87	4 i
Miller, Carl	28.54	. 27.14	-2934	+ 1%
Hair. Can m	115%	11814	115%	+ 154
Last Cotton Od	100	22.2	207.25	13
Attack & At H	7.2.56	71.62	75.72	1 .2
Am. T. & T. Co	133	133 (7	133	+ 2
Augoonda Monirg.	37%	nn tr	37 %	+ 15
Att. T. A. S. P	104.6	101%	104 %	+ 5
THEATY A CHINA	3.005.546	20015	100	1 2
Central Leather	204	10.42	100	1 3
Francisco on Properties	M47.10	2154	245.0	+ 40
be he or Ohio	77%	7612	77.56	+ 1%
E. M. & St. P.	1184	11214	113.4	+ %
Find F & I	127	1201	125	1 3
Pie	*	200.55	30.96	I
COTOR INT DOLLARS	47.17	47.4	47.0	40
7 No of	128	120%	128	+ 1
ter Met		11	11.6	- *
Vatt Valley	1411	1.50	161	5
Linus & Nadi	137	137	137	1 7
Big. Can & Tes	27.14	27	2714	I
Carferla & West	414	4014	4146	+ %
Central	111	132	112	16
Carriero Produce	13017	1764	110	7 . 16
Sarthern Parities	12215	122	1224	I be
Bearing	1645	1821	164	+ 11
Market Mindelland and Article	200	23 %	21114	+ 4
Cold Island	1775	71.15	122	+ . %
Scath. Parific	97.6	27	107.0	I
Cenn. Conner	848	3314	nic.	1 10
Faird Avetitie	316.54	38	884	$ 5,15
Peton Pacific.	100.00	157 %	100	+ 2%
Rubber	300 15	20	90	4 .
To H Steel	644	172.29	0417	1 4
If & Steel of	109	1004	100 %	I 4

Give the Childen All They Want.

the greater part of her affection, her time and much of her fortune. Mr. Shepard and Miss Gould's Bettle places. Helen and Dorothy Gould, foillowed her to Lyndhurst. Besides the HELPED HIM PUT THROUGH MILLION-DOLLAR DEALS

Meteoric Course of Convicted Swindler Awaiting Sentence Shows 230 Victims, Four of Whom Committed Suicide Over Their Losses.

A new term has been coined within the last few days among real estate men. It is "Jacksonizing" real estate. Clipped of all its technicalities, it means juggling land and mortgages indiscriminately, such as buying and colling land and mortgages without owning them.

men. It is "Jackson Ling" real estate. Clipped of all its technicalities, it reasoned to being stated at by curious means jugging land and mortgages without owning them.

APTERNOON,
The hour for the rebearest has not been made public, but it to believe it will take place it the afternoon. The creator of "Jacksonities," Date of "Jackson has been made public, but it its believes it will take place it the afternoon. The creator of "Jackson him," Date on which Jackson has been made public, but it its believes it will take place it the afternoon. The creator of "Jackson him," Date on which Jackson has been common that Georgeants and the country, His deale were consciented.

It was in this room that Georgeants. The country of the deale were distincted by the country of the dealer was a state of the probable that his released, beat of the probable that his fishepard will regard the state of the probable that his fishepard will regard the state of the probable that his fishepard will regard the state of the probable that his fishepard when he will regard the state of the probable that his fishepard will regard the state of the a woman of marvellous latent beauty, has been in Chicago with relatives es-tablishing a residence for the purpose of obtaining a siveres.

Broadway as "The Girl With the Starry Eyes," became associated with Jackson and was the hostess of a gorgeously fur-nished apartment in the fashionable uptown district, where she entertained like a queen scores of out of town customers of the Jackson Brothers' Real Estate Company.

Perhaps of all the women who were the one who understood him best and who was more of a match for his keen, shrowd business ability was Mrs. Ada Riankenshipp, a widow, young and at-It was Mrs. Blankenshipp who became an active partner in many of his transactions and who successfully coped with him, when all others falled. The first Blankenshipp who introduced Jackson to Ruth E. Dace, her young and pretty sister, who later became his confidante and who was faithful to him to the last To this simple, pretty girl, who came from Harrisburg, Mo., where she had sen a school teacher on a salary of $13 a week, he gave a $15,000 cottagethe new famous Rosemary Cottage-at Garden City, L. I. Miss Dace, the simdummy in his transactions.

Jackson had a wonderful instinct in reading people. He knew at once whom he could trust. These women helped him and he lavished his money and affection on them. With one exception they it is doubtful if any of them ever ab-solutely realized that he was dishonest. LAWYER DENNISON THE MAN

WHO LANDED JACKSON. E. B. Dennison, a lawyer of No. 206 Broadway, was Jackson's Nemesia. man to operate in Ohio. Dennison as sales man to operate in Ohio. Dennison and his brother, Olin M Jackson and his brother, Olin M Jackson, who comprised the Jackson and his brother, Olin M Jackson, who comprised the Jackson are secretary the widow home that evening that he learned from her of business in real estate in Ohio, turn for business in real estate in Oh diamonds and pearls. Howard Gould all-important parts in his many brilliant, if questionable, real estate transactions, and who also influenced the sactions, and who also influenced the sactions and who also influenced the sactions will be made up at the Grand Central Station long before the time set for the wedding, and after having taken on the guests it will be rushed the sactions will be rushed the saction of the women who have played terrly. Jackson met Ada Blankenshipp in Bestion in 1901. He was introduced to heraction in 1901. He was introduced to herac apartment. Not satisfied with the ordi-nary luxury in the appointments of his wife's suits. Jackson sent out for bunches upon bunches of American Beauty roses and strewed them all over the bed and the floor of his wife's boudoir and then poured the costliest perfume all over the furnishings and draperies in the room."

"BED OF ROSES."

Miss Dace, and Mrs. Blankenshipp, her widowed sister, were instrumental in putting through one of Jackson's biggest deals, and neither of them was suity of anything dishonest. After Jackson's purchase of forty-three acres of Long Island property from Nella Hannah, which he bought for $1,400 an acre and finally incorporated for $110,000 worth of stock, he sent' both of these women to Garden City, Kan., where they met George T. Johnson of Greenwood, Ind., who bought $20,000 worth of useless stock. Abraham Shasham was another victim in the same deal. He another victim in the same deal. He bought $18,000 worth of the same stock. There were many others defrauded in the same transaction, one a newspaper editor in this city, who, however, got remained loyal to him to the end, and CLARK, THE YALE MAN, SWIN-DLED, CUT HIS THROAT.

Policeman Foye, formerly one graduate who invested his mother's money, amounting to several thought and any was Jackson's Nemesia, a employed Dennison as a salest coperate in Ohio. Dennison as a salest chairm on the complex of the case as soon as possible. The Alekson and his brother, Olin M. The Alekson and his complex and his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Chairman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Chairman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Chairman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers, for perjury in his charges against Policeman Foye, formerly one of Becker's Strong-Armers,

Vice Graft Informer and Son Coming From Grand Jury

. .

Mrs. Blankenshipp appeared later, discovering that Jackson had not been square with her in the transaction and made him pass over her part of the $2,000.

Clark never got any return for his investment. He spent $25 in telephone calls and stamps trying to see Jackson. On the Saturday before Thanksgiving, 1911, he called Jackson ap on the selephone from his room in the Hermitage. and failing to get any satisfaction from the real estate man, cut his throat and died a suicide.

HANDLER OF FUND TO KEEP SIPP OUT

(Continued from First Page.)

Florence Denner, a telegraph operator the wisard real estate operator that day and adjourned until next Friday caused Mrs. Jackson to decide to go without comment. There would have to Chicago, where she is now residing. been no use in trying to go on with the if arrangements were made for a pop-THE STORY OF THE FAMOUS trial without the teatimony of George whar reception at the Capitol as Sipp, who, acting on the advice of the substitute for the inaugural ball Mre District-Attorney, has ignored the Po- Wilson and the Miles Wilson would

As an illustrative incident of Jackson's lavishness and the speed he dashed in his pleasure seeking oscapades along the Great White Way, there stands in the memory of many of the historians of Broadway romance Jackson's famous "Bed of Roses."

"This occurred," said Dennison to-day, "while Mrs. Jackson was away from their apartments in the Cadillac, Jackson dined that evening in the Cadillac with Miss Dace and another relative of hers, a widow. Jackson invited them to spend the night in his wife's apartment. Not satisfied with the ordinary luxury in the appointments of

WILL DEMAND SPECIAL PANEL TO TRY FOX.

The District-Attorney proposes moving for a special panel to select the jury to try Patrolman Eugene Fox. He ask this within another day or two. As five days must follow the motio before the talesmen are examined it will be the early part of next week before Fox goes to trial.

and the Hyde cases-record of calls. In the present instance, however, the District-Attorney has found a witness who heard over the telephone-a conversagon that had a big bearing upon the charges of attempted bribery as relates to Sipp. Rubin, who is associated with Emory Buckner before the Aldermanic committec, placed before his chief yesterday the details of the charges formulated Charles Brainard Clark, the Yate against Policeman Foye, formerly one as Governor of New Jersey until March guration at Wat hington.

A REPUBLICAN OUT

ome President of the United States no will not travel in a private car, nor will any member of his family. He said today that he expected to make his ordinary travel arrangements.

It is probable that 1.000 Princeton students, who are to march in the inaugural parade, will have their special cars ating taken on the guests it will be rushed through to Irvington. There a score of motor cars will be on hand to meet the same train so as to escore the former President of their university into the national capital and give him a gave her the Rosemany Cottage.

Ultimately it was this friendship believed the former President of their university into the national capital and give him a gave her the Rosemany Cottage.

Ultimately it was this friendship believed the former President of their university into the national capital and give him a gave her the Rosemany Cottage.

Ultimately it was this friendship believed the former President of their university into the national capital and give him a gave her the Rosemany Cottage.

Ultimately it was this friendship believed the former President of their university into the national capital and give him a gave her the Rosemany Cottage.

Ultimately it was this friendship believed the former President of their university into the national capital and give him a gave her the Rosemany Cottage.

Ultimately it was this friendship believed the former President of the same train so as to escort the former President of the tached to the same train so as to escort HANDSHAKERS

Gov. Wilson declared to-day that

Wilson had favored the abandonmer of the inaugural bail because of the possibility that the dancers might is dulge in the "turkey trot" and similar dances. He said he had opposed the idea of an inaugural ball chiefly because of the indirect expense to the Govern

GOWN FOR MISS WILSON. it is of Norfolk Silk of New Color and Costs $650.

NORFOLK, Va., Jan. 21.-When Pres! dent-elect Woodrow Wilson is inaugu-rated in March his daughter, Mis-Eleanor Wilson, will wear a dress made rom silk manufactured in Norfolk.

A silk dress was offered to Miss Wilson in November when her father was elected President and she was asked ; designate the shade she desired. Sh chose the outside petal of an American Beauty rose and the dress is now being made in New York. It will cost $650 and will be delivered early in February.

DIES IN DOCTOR'S OFFICE.

An unidentified woman about forty years old, died suddenly of heart dis South America.

Salvatore Gliento, confessed murderer, was sentenced by Justice Crane in Brooklyn to-day to nineteen years and dead.

ray, also a director, and himself, it was Cuiver was to share in the stock of severally agreed Cuiver should receive the Hudson Navigation Company, atock to the amount of 2,000 shares. The papers intimate that McCarthy, whose residence is Ko. 127 Fifth avenue. Truy, N. Y., was an ally of Morse in securing this link of the chain of steamship lines.

Carthy's lawyer, personally interviewed in the suit.

the ex-banker in the latter's offices at No. 45 Exchange place and there got from him a promise that Norse would Ived at No. 12 East Sixty-sixth street attend the trial. Two days later Morse suddenly salled for London without noti-fying Mr. McConthe of his intention. fring Mr. McConine of his intention of the motion of the m

BUSINESS SENT

MORSE ABROAD,

NOT POOR HEALTH

'Ice King" Taft Pardoned

When Reported Dying Describes Finances.

That Charles Morse, the pardoned banker, went abroad last November solely for business purposes after he had discussed with his lawyers that his creditors put him through bankruptcy. is a statement contained in a deposition sworn to by the former "Ice King" Jan.

8, 1913, at the New Kurssal Hotel in and Moree in pegotiating for the control

Culver, who received a salary of $15,000 as president of the Navigation Company.

Morse, McCarthy and Edward F. Mur-this link of the chain of steamship lines then in process of consolidation by Morse. The trial of the action was postponed by several Supreme Court Justices to give McCarthy an opportunity to subposes Moree as a witness

CHARGES SON SAID TRIP WAS

BUSINESS ONE.

When the case was marked "ready"

last November, Warren McConfhe, Mc-of the stock of the company.

according to physicians who examined him is the Federal prison at Atlanta, should have expired resterday, was taken in the suit brought by Abel L. Culver, former president of the Rudson "State what action, if any, was taken Culver, former president of the Hudson Navigation Company, against Peter Mc-Carthy, a stockholder and director is the same company. Culvar seeks to recover a money judgment of $10,000 for sover a money judgment of $10,000 for stated that it was a case for executive stated that it was a claims that at meetings attended by Cuiver's charges that Morse was a pa ciemency which was, I am informed unprecedented." Each of the twenty-four pages are signed by Morse and the Commissione before whom he testified. The isstimum will be used in McCarthy's defense t ty to the alleged agreement by waich

WOMAN'S THREE WILLS

Mrs. Costello's Son Declares She

Was Mentally Infirm When

She Wrote One.

by Mrs. Leva G. Costello, each making

Mrs. Ropes identified a paper declared

BOYS ACCUSED OF HOLDUP

tice Bratt Issued the warrants on com-bail on Priday on the holdup charge ladner. Not Levy, Was Purened by

The statement published on Jan. 17 that the man stabled by Mrs. Rose

Ladner in the Court House was Samuel Levy was erroneous. The man who was the victim of the near-stabbing affray was Samuel Ladner a brother-in-law of Mrs. Ladner, who appeared as a witness in the suit which Mrs. Ladner is pressing against Samuel Levy and her daughter.

ALSO CALLED BURGLARS.

Three wills, said to have been made

FIGURE IN CONTEST

"The son told me," stated the lawyer, that when his father left New York the week previous, he (the father) had stated nothing about taking any cure influenced. and that the trip was solely for business purposes and that his father would be to be will No. 2, by the terms of which back by Dec. 11, 1912." erty to her son. Announcement was then made that in a third will Mrs. Cos-tello had left most of her property to

The deposition contains twenty-four pages of questions to Morse by A. Levinge Whately of No. 17 Lingoln Inn Fields, London, West, who was directed by Justice Newburger to examine Morse. Regarding Culver's claims that Morse agreed to give him stock for services in negotiating the control of the company. Morse's reply to at least twenty questions bearing on that topic is "I have no recollection of his performing any service or of my agreeing to pay him for any services."

"Was there a meeting at which it was specified that you would be or became owner of 21,000 shares of stock of the company. ALSO CALLED BURGLARS.

ALSO CALLED BURGLARS.

Edward Riley, fourteen years old, a mental condition, brought on by nervous debility, had immediately imagined the worst, and if I had not explained the worst, and if I had no Morse agreed to give him stock for twenty questions hearing on that topic forming any service or of my agreeing Hillsdale, N. J., who were arrested last owner of 21,000 shares of stock of the by Constable Ernest Trainor on the Hudson Navigation Company and that Murray and McCarthy became owners Murray and McCarthy became owners plaint of Mrs. Marvin D. High, were of of 9,000 shares, and at which it was a New York newspaper man, who has a agreed that Culver should have an bungalow at Hillsdale. amount of stock proportfonate with that received by McCarthy and Murray" was asked.

"I have no recollection of a such meeting at which any such agreement was made."

"Did you own over 22,000 shares of "Did you own over 22,000 shares of they were guity.

The Tompkins boy was released under "The books of the company will $500 ball and Killey's father furnished how." stock in this company in 1887"

"What was the largest amount you ever held?"

"The books of the company will show that.' "Did the defendant, Peter McCarthy during 1907-08-09 in advancing and loaning moners and enabling it to weather the financial depression of business during those years?" "The books of the company will show

MORSE DENIES HE IS FINAN-CIALLY RESPONSIBLE. The cross-interrogatories directed at

Morse follow: "Are you financially responsible?"

"Are there not unsatisfied udgments against you in amounts aggregating at least $100,000?"

"Have you not recently suggested t your attorneys that your creditors put you through bankruptcy?" "Were you not indicted and convicted in the United States District Court of wilfully misapplying the funds of a national bank and making faise entries with intent to injure and defraud and deceive the examiners and were you not sentenced to a term of "The records will show."

Under re-direct interrogatories Morse was asked if he stated any extenuating circumstances or facts regarding street, this afternoon. She was poorly cach of the four cross interrogatories, dressed and had nothing on her person the replied to each cross usation as follows: "1. I have not had time to settle up

> ELECTIONS AND MEETINGS NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the annual measing of the absolutors of the Magaza County Irrigation and Water Shoply Company will be held at the New York office at the company will be held at the New York office at the company will be that any on the functs day of Penrisary, 1913, at closes o'clock in the formion, for the purpose of electing directors for the chanting para and in secretary of election to serve other cars annual macring, and for the transaction of such other incomes as was nesery some before said meeting.
>
> Dated Jan, 10, 1918.

my affairs owing to imprisonment and BANKER ACCUSES PARTNER

OF FORGERY IN CONFESSION "2. There are three judgments against ing guaranteed people's accounts and P. S. Garner's Name Affixed it indorsing notes, and are not due to my Document by Goldberg, direct liability.
"S. I have never filed a petition

Declares Auerbach. Rubin Auerbach and Henry Gold

bankruptey or so far taken any legal proceedings along those lines." "See below," was Morse's answer.
"Were got a large number of counts in indictments thrown out?"

"The Circuit Court of Appeals only contirmed fourteen, I believe, out of eighty counts."

"Did yo dever wilfully misapply funds of any bank?"

"I never did wilfully or otherwise."

"I never did wilfully or otherwise."

of any bank?"

"I never did wilfally or otherwise misapply funds of any bank."

"Did you ever mass a fause entry in a national bank with intent to deceive?"

"I never made or caused to be made any fause entry on the wooks of a national bank to injure or defaud or deceive an examiner, thereof."

"Did the transaction set forth in the cross interrogatory relating to the fause entry show a profit to the bank."

"The profits were many thousands of dollars."

"Is it not a fact that all the acts rolled on by the Government were done by Mr. Ourse, President of the bank, and were not matters of your personal in wideds."

who was immediately indicted and arrested.

According to the story told by Assignation of $1,000 that was demanded by the State Banking Department as a bond for them to continue ment as a bond for them to continue ment as a bond for them to continue for intention of the business. The two induced Joseph Hurwitz of No. 36 Graham avenue. Brooklyn, to lend them that amount on the profit of t of any bank?"
"I never did wilfully or otherwise

Rapailo, Italy, which reached New York

City to-day.

The deposition of Morse, whose life, and were not matters of your personal following the examined

The deposition of Morse, whose life, and were not matters of your personal following the satisfaction piece and that he to the satisfaction piece and that he to the satisfaction piece and that he himself had filed it in the Register

MOST AMERICANS HAVE NERVOUS DEBILITY

A London Nerve Specialist Gives This as an Expert Opinion.

TONA VITA IS RELIEF

New Tonic Has Wonderful Action in Relieving This Ailment.

a different disposition of her property "The other day a friend of mine asked me if I was not exaggerating slightly when I said that ninety per cent. of the figured in a contest before Surrogate Consian to-day. Mrs. Costello, who city-dwellers of America suffer from ner your debility," said John Bearley Webb died Nov. 28 last at the age of eightythe London expert, who is now connected with the introduction of the new tonic Fons Vits.
"I replied that I made the statement

"I replied that I made the statement after close observation.

"My friend said: 'I have never been afflicted with nerves in my life. I don't know what the things are.'

"The conversation went on to other subjects. When my friend got up to go he had a shooting pain in the back caused by a knob in the back of his chair."

"He immediately turned white and putting his hand to his back, said: "I believe my kidneys are getting out of order. I will have to go and see my doctor.'
"Here was a man who had been boast ing a few minutes before that he had nothing wrong with his nerves. He had not stopped to think what had caused the pain in his back, but in his weakened the greater percentage of diseases are self-cultivated by patients who are suffering from nervous debility.

"Tons Vita acts as a strong nervous tonic which not only places the body in tonic which not only places the bor a condition to naturally combat di Mr. and Mrs. High read of a revolver being recovered from the the four boy bandits and Mrs. High came here a condition to naturally combat disease but also makes the body well-nigh in-vulnerable to disease.

"And I am glad to see that the people of New York are waking up to the seri-cusness of nervous debility and to the great strengthening powers of Tona Vite for all the serious descriptions. boy bandits and Mrs. High came here and identified it as her property. Two valuable rifles and lewelry were stolen from the High house. Young Tompkins, it is said, admitted to Judge Bratt that Vita, for all the drug stores are reporting splengid sales." DIED.

DALY.—On Jan. 20. NELLIE, belored daughter of John Daly and May lickey, native of Elicrohans. County Cork, Ireland.

Funeral from the residence of her aunt. Mrs. McCarthy, 8 Bethune st., Thursday, Jan. 23, at 9,30 A. M.; thence to St. Veronica's Church. Christopher st. Interment Calvary Cometery. HELP WANTED-MALE.

PENNY A POUND PROPIT Special for Wednesday, 226

Special for Tuesday, the 21st Tuesday's Offering

Car. Church Street

PINEAUPLE FACIT LUMPS—To Hawaii no go for the Pineapple, to Cube for the giner, and the two are blanded in the finest condy historia. 10c the finest condy histhern. 10c

EBe. value closerhers.

Wednesday's Offering

FTALIAN STYLE CHOCOLATE CREAMS

—Fine crown contre sayunitely flavored, covered with specially revealed the covered with specially revealed the covered with specially revealed the fines.

The mest in year mouth that the color, when show proved the following the following the following the following following the following following the following following the following the following the following following the AND CHOCOLATE COCOANUT and chocolate flavored, in 20c

PENNY A POUND PROFIT PLUS PARCEL POST

Any of the above specials will be delivered by Parcel Fost within 80 miles 11 1 b bei ...... 15 7 b bei ...... Rates outside 50-mile limit on application. If desired, nackages can be insure for 10c, additional. Postal Note or Currency must accompany orders.

Park Row. Cortlandt and 125th street stores open every evening until 11 o'clock. All our stores open Saturday evening until 11 o'clock.

54 BARCLAY STREET Car. West Broadway 29 CORTLANDT ST. Park Row & Nassau St At City Hall Park

206 BROADWAY Cor. Fulton St. Bet. Beekman & Spruce Sts 266 W. 125th STREET Just East of 8th Ave.